PURPOSE

Form BFS-RP-P-36A Annual Claim and Certification for Continued Exemption – Qualifying Affordable Rental Dwelling Units is used in the annual filing to continue exemption from property taxes. The regulatory agency and owner certifies that the real property is used exclusively for affordable rental dwelling units during the period in which the rental unit is subject to an affordable housing agreement.

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

This exemption applies to 1) the portion of real property used for affordable rental dwelling units as provided on-site or off-site pursuant to Ordinance 18-10, 2) the portion of real property used for affordable rental dwelling units provided pursuant to a planned development-transit permit under 17-54, or an interim planned development-transit permit under 16-26, or 3) the portion of real property used for affordable rental dwelling units located on real property used in connection with a housing project developed in compliance with HRS Section 201H-36(a)(5), and is subject to an affordable housing agreement. The exemption portion does not apply to any portion of the real property that is: 1) used for commercial or other non-residential purposes, 2) not for the exclusive use of the tenants of the affordable rental dwelling units, or 3) subject to any other exemption from real property taxation.

Required Annual Claim: Once the form BFS-RP-P-36 Initial Claim for Exemption – Qualifying Affordable Rental Dwelling Units has been granted, you are required to file form BFS-RP-P-36A Annual Claim and Certification for Continued Exemption – Qualifying Affordable Rental Dwelling Units by September 30, preceding the tax year, certifying that the project continues to be in compliance with the initial affordable housing agreement and is in compliance with the applicable rental requirements. If the annual claim is not filed by September 30, Real Property Assessment Division will mail a reminder to the owner advising of cancellation unless Real Property Assessment Division receives a completed form BFS-RP-P-36A Annual Claim and Certification for Continued Exemption – Qualifying Affordable Rental Dwelling Units by November 15 and payment of a $500 penalty.

Changes That Affect Qualification: Form BFS-RP-P-36 Initial Claim for Exemption – Qualifying Affordable Rental Dwelling Units and supporting documents listed below, must be filed within 30 days for changes that affect the qualification of this exemption. Please contact Real Property Assessment Division at (808) 768-3799 for any questions.

Supporting documents must be filed with this claim:

- a. Recorded Affordable Housing Agreement or Regulatory Agreement (required; must be with a governmental agency)
 - i. Affordable rental dwelling units: For-rental affordable dwelling units must be rented to households earning 80% and below of the AMI. Ordinance 18-10
 - ii. Affordable rental dwelling units: All available units are for household with incomes at or below 140% of the area median family income as determined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, of which at least 20% of the available units are for households with incomes at or below 80% of the area median family income as determined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development. HRS Section 201H-36(a)(5)
- b. A plot plan to illustrate specific use of each area and identify affordable rental units.
- c. Restrictive Covenants (required if separate from the regulatory agreement or lease)
- d. Recorded lease (if applicable)

Other documents as necessary to determine exemption qualification

Cancellation, Taxes and Penalties, and Filing a new form BFS-RP-P-36 Initial Claim for Exemption – Qualifying Affordable Rental Dwelling Units to re-establish exemption benefit.

- 1) If the claims contain false or fraudulent information or the project fails to meet the requirements in Ordinance 18-1 at any time during the regulated period, the exemption will be canceled retroactive to the date the exemption was first granted. The differences in the amount of taxes that were paid and those that would have been due but for the exemption allowed are payable and ten percent per annum from the respective dates that these payments would have been due.
- 2) If an owner fails to file an annual claim during the regulated period, the exemption will be canceled retroactive to the date the exemption was first granted. The differences in the amount of taxes that were paid and those that would have been due but for the exemption allowed are payable and ten percent per annum from the respective dates that these payments would have been due.
- 3) If ownership of any portion of the real property that qualifies for an exemption under Ordinance 18-1 changes during the regulated period, the exemption will be canceled retroactive to the date the exemption was first granted. The differences in the amount of taxes that were paid and those that would have been due but for the exemption allowed are payable and ten percent per annum from the respective dates that these payments would have been due for the entire project (retained portion and ownership change portion) unless a new form BFS-RP-P-36 Initial Claim for Exemption – Qualifying Affordable Rental Dwelling Units is filed within thirty (30) days of recording real property title change.
