HOME EXEMPTION REQUIREMENTS

The real property must be owned and occupied as the owner's principal home as of the assessment date by an individual or individuals. Owner's principal home means occupancy by the owner of the home in the city for more than 270 calendar days of a calendar year. Occupancy of the home may be evidenced by, but not limited to, the following factors: registering to vote in the city; being stationed in the city under military orders of the United States; and filing an income tax return as a resident of the State of Hawaii, with a reported address in the city. Your ownership of the property must be duly recorded at the Bureau of Conveyances or duly filed in the office of the assistant registrar if real property is registered land in land court pursuant to HRS Ch. 501, on or before September 30th preceding the tax year for which such exemption is claimed.

Claims for home exemption must be filed with RPAD on or before September 30th preceding the tax year for which such exemption is claimed (e.g. filed on or before September 30, 2019 for the 2020-21 tax year beginning July 1, 2020 and ending June 30, 2021) for which it is claimed. Any change in facts or status which affects the entitlement to the home exemption (e.g. moving out, changing ownership, etc.) must be reported to RPAD within 30 days or by November 1 preceding the tax year to which the change applies.

A lessee may file a claim for home exemption if (1) the lease of the parcel has a term of five or more years, (2) the parcel is used for residential purposes as the lessee's principal home, (3) the lease and any extension, renewal, assignment or agreement to assign the lease is duly recorded in the Bureau of Conveyances or duly filed in the office of the assistant registrar if the real property is registered land in land court pursuant to HRS Ch.501, (4) the lessee agreed under the lease to pay all real property taxes during the term of the lease, and (5) the lessee submits the claim for exemption on or before September 30th preceding the tax year with documentary evidence attached.

SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER

The social security number is requested for the purpose of verifying the identity of the claimant. The request is authorized under the Federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C.A. Sec. 405(c)(2)(C)). Disclosure is voluntary and will not affect the allowance of a claim for exemption, but the failure to disclose may delay the exemption eligibility determination.
